Copyright Compliance LEARN THE FACTS

Does your institution use movies for rewards, holiday events, educational programs or therapeutic activities?

If you're using movies for any reason, you MUST obtain a public performance license.

Why do I need a Public Performance License?

Neither the rental nor purchase of a movie carries the right to exhibit it outside of one's home. Companies, organizations and individuals must secure a license to publicly exhibit a copyrighted motion picture. This applies equally to profit-making organizations and nonprofit institutions, such as prisons, hospitals, etc.

What happens to those who violate copyright law?

Motion picture companies can, and will, go to court to ensure their copyrights are not violated. Those convicted could face embarrassing publicity, prison time and expensive fines.

How does Swank help?

Our public performance site license provides you with unlimited use of "Home Use Only" movies and TV shows. In fact, only Swank can provide the necessary licensing to show films at your facility on behalf of 90 percent of Hollywood's biggest studios. No other licensing source can provide this exclusive, comprehensive coverage.
